Chapter Tour Meeting

Speakers & Bios

Dan Cimatori, CEO & Founder of CIMORONI

Initially, Dan had a career managing high profile Canadian musicians. This gained him the attention and opportunity of a lifetime as VP for IMG's Athlete Division in Canada & Global Golf. His efforts included transforming the Canadian athletics department, growing their revenue, and leading all of Mike Weir's management duties - including being the 3rd person to hug him after his 2003 Masters win. Over the years, he has continued to build his repertoire in Sport & Entertainment, including bringing the song "I Believe" from the Vancouver Olympics to the #1 single in Canada, leading PGA European Tour's multi-million-dollar Rolex Series partnership, played an essential role in the naming and launch of the new Taboo golf course, the launch of the Club at Bond Head golf course and continues to lead business development and negotiations efforts across athlete, talent, media, and event property clients at CIMORONI.
