

Stop 4 ~ Wednesday, March 6 @ The Thornhill Club

Don Douglas

Don Douglas is a Senior Investment Advisor with RBC Dominion Securities in Toronto. He has built a successful practice by providing the highest quality advice and service to individual investors for over 30 years. The combination of experience and industry acumen has helped Don and his team evolve into one of the leading advisory teams in the country. Don has been recognized as a pioneer in the wealth management of professional athletes and he helped build the Sports Professionals Group within RBC. He is a proud member of The Thornhill Club.

Dr. Charles Fitzsimmons

Charles earned his PhD in Sport Psychology from Western University in London, Ontario. He has coached professional and amateur athletes of all ages to numerous championships in a range of sports. Whether it is with teams or individuals, Charles uses his athletic experiences and his empathetic communication style to teach mental skills which have been proven to enhance coping, satisfaction, and performance. His specialty is helping golfers thrive under tournament pressure.

Charles' competitive golfing highlights include back-to-back wins at 2022 & 2021 Canadian Mid-Amateur and the 2022 & 2021 Ontario Match Play, the 2019 Canadian University Championship, the 2019 Ontario Mid-Amateur, and the 2019 Boyd Quaich Memorial Tournament at the Old Course in St. Andrews. His record-setting 13 year career golfing at Western University also included 5 team and 2 individual Ontario Championships, 9 All-Star and 6 MVP awards, and 13 straight National Championship appearances.

When he's not golfing, Charles likes to play hockey, stay physically fit, invest in the stock market, and learn about topics ranging from history to astronomy.

Stop 4 ~ Wednesday, March 6 @ The Thornhill Club

Andrew Vento

Andrew has been a PGA of Canada member for 22 years and worked at both public and private golf clubs. Andrew was the Director of Operations at King's Riding Golf Club and Georgetown Golf Club (formerly Eagle Ridge Golf Club). For the past 10 years, Andrew has worked for Humber College as the Program Coordinator for the Professional Golf Management program.