Dalewood Golf Club

Dalewood Golf Club is a semi-private year round facility offering the amenities of a prestigious urban club, located in Northumberland County.

Dalewood was designed by renowned golf course architect Robbie Robinson and opened in 1974. Dalewood features a par 71 championship course with tee selections that offer a wide variety of playing yardages. The golf course offers great conditions and the natural hazards make it a very challenging game of golf.

Dalewood also boasts the most scenic banquet facility in the area; the Great Hall can accommodate up to 175 people and is surrounded by floor-to-ceiling windows offering splendid views of the golf course and countryside. The facility also offers a full service restaurant, bar, and barbecue patio area available to the public, members, and guests alike.
