

Teaching Professional at GOLFTEC Erin Mills

Do you have a passion for teaching and club fitting? Do you take pride in coaching your students to play their best golf? Are you interested in a career in golf that allows you to work 5 days a week, 12 months of the year? If so, we want you on our team!

Our Certified Personal Coaches approach each session with one simple goal in mind, "To Help People Play Better Golf". Our coaches are provided with premier golf technology in a state of the art instructional environment to aid this process. We coach players on all aspects of the game from tee to green, and we do it both indoors and outdoors.

With 20 centres across Canada, and over 200 worldwide, our coaches have taught more than 11 million lessons to more than 600,000 students. GOLFTEC currently employs 72 PGA of Canada professionals; 20 of those professionals work right here in the Greater Toronto Area, and we are looking to add to this ever expanding team. If you're interested in working for a dynamic, growing company with room for advancement, then GOLFTEC is the career for you. Increased interest from golfers this year makes now an ideal time to begin your career with GOLFTEC.

Job Description

- Long-term coaching of students in an individualized environment, assisting in daily centre operations and taking an active role in merchandising of golf equipment.
- Attend GOLFTEC University, our 30-day development program.
- Use professional judgment and expertise to recommend teaching and learning content, and create custom lesson plans for students of varying skill levels.
- Recommend appropriate services for each student, including TECFIT Club Fitting, playing lessons, short game lessons, TECPUTT putting instruction and other services.
- Take an active role in promoting GOLFTEC and the game of golf in your local community.
- Maintain the GOLFTEC Training Center environment, equipment and technology.
- Participate in continuing education to enhance skills (distance learning, PGA seminars, etc.).
- GOLFTEC Coaches are expected to be passionate, approachable, educational, encouraging and proud.

Experience:

- Class A Golf Professional preferred - will consider those on the path towards Class A
- Teaching experience preferred, but not required
- General sales and customer service experience strongly preferred
- Custom club fitting experience an asset
- International PGA Members are encouraged to apply

Benefits:

- A 40 hour-per-week schedule year round supports a strong work-life balance
- Five days on, two days off per week (even in golf season)
- Paid vacation time – 2 weeks in 1st and 2nd year, 3 weeks in 3rd year and onwards
- PGA of Canada dues paid by the company
- 50% of premiums in the company benefits plan (extended health, dental, etc) paid by the company

Job Category:	Golf Instruction/Golf Coach
Title:	GOLFTEC Certified Personal Coach
Compensation:	Up to $60,000.00 per year based on experience and performance. Consists of a semi-monthly base salary plus monthly incentive pay and teaching bonus.
Position Type:	Full Time, Year-Round
Deadline for Resumes:	June 30, 2021
PGA Affiliation:	PGA of Canada Professional
How to Apply:	Email resume and cover letter to – Head Teaching Professional and Centre Manager Will Dempster – wdempster@golftec.com

What does a career at GOLFTEC look like? PGA Members Describe GOLFTEC
To learn more, visit our website at www.golftec.com