THE OPPORTUNITY AT OAKDALE

A legendary setting. A brighter tomorrow.

Oakdale Golf & Country Club was founded in 1926 by a group of Toronto businessmen with a shared vision to create a world-class club rooted in exceptional golf, camaraderie and enduring tradition.

The original nine holes were designed by Stanley Thompson, with the final nine added in 1957 by Robbie Robinson, creating the 27-hole layout members enjoy today.

Oakdale offers 27 holes of world-class golf along with a pool, tennis, pickleball, indoor simulators, fitness and full practice facilities. In 2023, the Club hosted the RBC Canadian Open, won by Nick Taylor.

A CLUB WORTH JOINING.

HERITAGE. COMMUNITY. OPPORTUNITY.

Oakdale is a family-oriented private club where generations come together to enjoy exceptional golf, genuine community and a vibrant, welcoming atmosphere.

Our 27-hole golf experience and multigenerational membership create an extraordinary environment — and an ideal platform for a Head Teaching Professional to lead, inspire and grow.

The Head Teaching Professional plays a highly visible role at Oakdale, helping members of all ages and skill levels learn, improve and deepen their connection to the game.

A CLUB PEOPLE WANT TO BELONG TO.

INDIVIDUAL LESSONS

During the 2026 season, Oakdale's Academy delivered almost 450 classes across eight official programs, serving approximately 1,950 students. The teaching team also delivered approximately 1,250 individual lessons.

The next Head Teaching Professional will inherit a meaningful instructional platform with strong participation, an engaged membership and the opportunity to elevate the program further.

A STRONG FOUNDATION TODAY.

Even greater possibilities tomorrow.

The opportunity is not to start an Academy.
It is to define what the Oakdale Academy becomes next.

THE ROLE

Lead the next chapter of instruction at Oakdale.

LEAD

Curate industry-leading programs for all members and collaborate with the Director of Golf and Professional Team to identify member needs, promote programming and strengthen participation.

TEACH

Deliver engaging private, semi-private and group instruction using TrackMan, video analysis and current training aids to provide understandable, evidence-based feedback.

DEVELOP

Oversee camps, clinics, online registration, Academy technology and billing, and help grow player-development opportunities.

ENGAGE

Represent the Club positively, connect with all demographics of the membership, and assist with flagship tournaments and group instruction.

VISIBLE. APPROACHABLE. MEMBER-FOCUSED.

A teaching professional who elevates the golf experience across the Club.

CORE RESPONSIBILITIES

The day-to-day leadership of the Oakdale Academy.

- 1 Use professional expertise to curate industry-leading programs for all members.
- 2 Deliver engaging private, semi-private and group instruction to members of varying ages, abilities and experience levels.
- 3 Provide club fittings as needed.
- 4 Maintain the Academy, equipment and technology.
- 5 Use TrackMan, video analysis and current training aids effectively to provide understandable, evidence-based feedback.
- 6 Attend meetings and participate in the organization and provision of group instruction, both for members and other groups as requested.
- 7 Represent the Club in professional tournaments from time to time.
- 8 Oversee the online registration process for all camps and clinics.
- 9 Oversee all billing for camp and clinic instruction.
- 10 Develop Member Communications throughout the season.
- 11 Submit lesson charges on a timely basis (monthly).
- 12 Play with all demographics of the membership without interfering with professional services rendered.
- 13 Assist with flagship tournaments such as the Men's and Women's Member Guests.
- 14 Collaborate with the Director of Golf and Professional Team to identify member needs, promote programming and strengthen participation.

A highly visible role combining instruction, program leadership, administration and member engagement.
