MOE NORMAN

CANDIDATE FOR MEMBERSHIP OF THE YEAR

The Moe Norman Candidate for Membership of the Year Award is the highest honour the association can bestow on a working Candidate for Membership whose total contributions to the game best exemplify the PGA of Canada Candidate for Membership. This award embraces a wide range of services executed by the club professional.

Arguably the greatest ball striker in the history of golf, Moe Norman is one the game's true legends. Before turning professional in 1957, Norman won two-straight Canadian Men's Amateur Championships in 1955 and 1956. As a professional, he won the PGA Championship of Canada twice (1966, 1974) and captured the PGA Seniors' Championship of Canada a remarkable eight times—including a run of seven in a row from 1979-1985.
