

Position: Marketing and Communications Manager

Organization: Maple Leaf Junior Golf Tour

Location: Remote

Application Close Date: July 31

About the Tour-

The non-profit Maple Leaf Junior Golf Tour is Canada's number one-played Junior Golf Tour as well as the only national junior tour run exclusively by PGA of Canada Professionals and the 'Road to College Golf' in Canada. The organization which started in 1999, hosts 100 events across Canada, including free Ford Go Golf Junior Clinics, the MJT Mini Tour for 12U and multi-day events for competitive players aged 11-19 which also offer qualifiers for international tournaments. Their target market is young people who enjoy golf, specifically those who would like to improve their game by receiving good instruction and playing in competitive events.

The program has annual awards, scholarships and incentives to help reward performance and participation throughout each season. MJT alumni include many Professional Tour players and PGA of Canada Professionals, as well as Canadian Amateur, National and Provincial Junior Champions. The MJT aims to develop champions, in golf and in life, promoting the game from grassroots through to the provincial, national, university and professional levels.

Program Objectives-

The program offers a schedule of professionally run tournaments, free instructional clinics and affiliation with instructional academies with the objective to improve golf skills, help build golfing resumes, learn sportsmanship and etiquette, and develop - from an early age - a lifelong enjoyment of the game.

The Role-

As the Tour has grown, so have the needs to help promote the Tour to its players and sponsors. Overall goal of position:
