

Steps to becoming A National Junior Golf Development Centre

MEET CERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

each facility interested in becoming a NJGDC must employ a PGA of Canada member certified under:

SUPPORTING MATERIALS

Documents	Get Linked	Standing
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ Letter of support from facility</li> <li>✓ Background check</li> <li>✓ Insurance certificate</li> <li>✓ Memorandum of Understanding</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ Relationship with Golf in Schools site</li> <li>✓ Active CN Future Links facility</li> <li>✓ Run the Learn to Play program</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ PGA of Canada members in good standing</li> <li>✓ Proof of competitive support to athlete(s)</li> <li>✓ Deliver new competitor program</li> </ul>

Example: Golf Canada Calgary Centre

7 PGA of Canada Class 'A' professionals

480 Learn to Play participants

3 CN Future Links Field Trips in 2014

Required documents submitted

GOLF CANADA CALGARY CENTRE

STRIVE "Strive for Excellence" program for competitive juniors

ADDED BENEFITS

exclusive support Industry experts Team Canada coaches and PGA of Canada expert insight	marketing &amp; promotion Additional support <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Decals, brochures provided</li> <li>- Advertising through golfcanada.ca and Golf Canada Magazine</li> </ul>	best-in-class programs LTPD first to receive latest LTPD compliant programming
--	---	---

